

ABOUT TAG

- Minority small business
- ECM & BI Accelerators
- Expertise in delivering complex enterprise data solutions
- Principals with 25 years of industry experience

As an SAP partner, TAG is committed to delivering unparalleled value and industry leading solutions and services to its customers.

SAP® Member
Extended Business Program

The Advizor Group (TAG) provides comprehensive end to end services and support for BusinessObjects installation, configuration, content creation, and dashboard initiatives. We asses and prioritize your organization's project needs, and architect the most efficient and cost effective methods for full lifecycle delivery to the table. We introduce formal methodologies with adaptation for delivery, and the TAG expertise and abilities are at par with any premium SI in the market. TAG's principals have participated and led multiple large scale BI and dashboard deployments, and provide added experience and value in support and transition methodologies. Our highly proficient and capable consultants possess the ability to work in almost any environment or situation.

Upgrade & Migrations

Certified consultants to help you securely migrate infrastructure & content to the supported & chosen platform.

BW to Business Objects
Business Objects XI to R4
Crystal to BOBJ 4.x
Roadmap to HANA

TAG brings a wealth of experience to assist in all aspects of the BO upgrades.

Implementations

Get the most out of the software purchase by choosing the right implementation partner for your data tools.

Business Objects, Crystal Xcelsius, Explorer, WebIntelligence, BEx, BW and HANA.

Our advizors will work with your business, IT and management teams to enable the right tool for the right user

Support

Providing post production support to your content management & BI users, infrastructure and overall deployment.

Phone, email, off site and on premise support options are available with our support team.

Architecture upgrade, content upgrade, training for end users & administrators.

SEE THE DIFFERENCE

The team of consultants and engineers we have built has worked through several successful enterprise deployments.

They are adept and creative in their approach. You will see the difference in the TAG team.

Upgrades and Migrations

TAG's Business Objects XI R4 Upgrade and Migration Services can ensure your company quickly benefits from its business intelligence (BI) system upgrade in order to capitalize the new features and improvement available in the new version. Our professional services are key when taking into account a wide set of variables such as alignment with corporate system strategy, scalability planning, and global access on a 24/7 basis. Our consultants have the skills and expertise to make your BI migration and upgrade project as efficient and effective as possible. Let our team draw upon its experience to help you reduce cost, minimize risk, and accelerate time to full user adoption.

Implementations

TAG's extensive BI experience across multiple technologies and environments, enables us to address your data integration challenges. We provide expert consulting and option evaluations. Providing expertise to assess & execute the conversion project Effect substantial time and cost savings by leveraging offshore capabilities and proven report conversion accelerators Leverage a well-defined process for analysis, rationalization, conversion and validation. As an SAP Business Objects partner, TAG is committed to delivering unparalleled value and industry leading services to its customers. TAG has expertise with Business Objects technologies and a proven the ability to meet customers' needs.

Support

With your organizations need specifically in mind, TAG has built a dedicated support practice to help the clients with the day to day support requirements. We provide post production support to your content management & BI users, infrastructure and overall deployment. Additionally we offer support around architecture upgrade, content upgrade, training for end users & administrators. Our support team provides phone, email, off site and on premise support